

number two, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number three, four justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number four, one justice of the peace and one constable; for election district number five, three justices of the peace and two constables; besides the constable appointed in the town of Princess Anne, by the commissioners of said town; [by virtue of the act of eighteen hundred and sixty-one, chapter twenty-eight] for election district number six, four justices of the peace and four constables; for election district number seven, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number eight, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number nine, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number ten, one justice of the peace and one constable; for election district number eleven, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number twelve, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number thirteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number fourteen, three justices of the peace and three constables; and for election district number fifteen, one justice of the peace and one constable. The additional justice of the peace and constable authorized to be appointed by this act, for the fourteenth election district of said county, in addition to the duties, obligations and fees now prescribed by law as appertaining to the said additional officers respectively, shall be charged with the duty of preserving order at Crisfield in said district, and of enforcing the act to prevent interruption of the navigation of Little Annapessex river in Somerset county, passed at the session of the general assembly eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, chapter two hundred and ninety-five.

Additional
duties of justice and con-
stable in election district,
No 14.

In force from March 22, 1867.